WELCOME TO THE LIFE COURSE CENTRE DIGEST

The Life Course Centre Digest is a new initiative to provide a succinct and easily accessible summary of our research and news. It highlights the latest academic publications from our researchers and the newest additions to the Life Course Centre Working Paper Series, as well as a snapshot of our recent news and upcoming events. Look out for our next newsletter with an in-depth, themed research focus to be distributed in July, followed by our next digest in August.

ACADEMIC PUBLICATIONS

Below are some of the most recent academic publications from our researchers. These journal articles, and more, can be accessed at: www.lifecoursecentre.org.au/research/journal-articles. If you have any difficulties accessing articles, please contact us at: lcc@uq.edu.au.

The importance of defining poverty from the perspective of those who experience it

Why fussy eating can be such a big problem in low-income households

What are the circumstances that lead to inequalities in childhood reading levels?

The effect of parents' unemployment on children's education levels

Are parenting support programs available to parents in the criminal justice system?

Do immigrants feel happier when economic conditions improve in their home country?

Many households that are eligible for food stamps do not receive them

Are females held to higher standards of household cleanliness than males?

WORKING PAPER SERIES

Our pre-publication Life Course Centre Working Paper Series is an outlet for disseminating research that explores, questions and deepens knowledge of social and economic disadvantage. Below is a selection of recent Working Papers. You can read more, and find out details on how to submit a paper, by visiting: www.lifecoursecentre.org.au/research/working-paper-series.
Does the weather impact on children's development?

The role of social origin in the career trajectories of university students

Examining Pasifika migration, labour mobility and well-being

What is the relationship between depression and risk taking?

Being among the oldest in your school class has long-lasting positive benefits

NEWS AND EVENTS
Below is a snapshot of some of the Life Course Centre's most recent news as well as details on upcoming events. You can keep up to date with all our latest news at: www.lifecoursecentre.org.au/news-and-media/centre-news and our events at: www.lifecoursecentre.org.au/events.

Three key themes examined at Life Course Centre 2019 Research Retreat
Economics and Education, Health and Mental Health, and Gender and Family were the three main themes of the Life Course Centre 2019 Research Retreat held in Perth, Western Australia. More than 50 Centre researchers, students, professional staff and representatives of our government and community partners gathered for the two-day retreat in May.

Good Bad People - finding self-worth in the midst of poverty, abuse and addiction
The Life Course Centre recently hosted a visit by Professor Heith Copes of the Department of Criminal Justice at the University of Alabama who provided valuable insights into a unique photo-based research study that challenges the stigmatised view of drug users. Good Bad People is a photo-ethnography that shows drug users through the lens of their own personal stories.

Upcoming Event: Language Growth from 4 to 8 and Developmental Circumstances
Professor Stephen Zubrick, Life Course Centre Chief Investigator, The University of Western Australia.
To be held at The University of Queensland Long Pocket Campus.
Wednesday July 10th 2019 12:15pm - 1.00pm.

Details Coming Soon: Life Course Centre 2020 Conference
Brisbane, Australia, 2020.

You are receiving this newsletter as a friend and interested party of the ARC Centre of Excellence for Children and Families over the Life Course. Copyright © 2018, The University of Queensland. We welcome your feedback to: lcc@uq.edu.au